

allyd master Roger the cite of worceter yong & noble of blood vertuous & good ate byshoppe of herforde dun a man of good lyvinge rituall lord ie and also lernyng e was all his purposing hat he might none consecrate lyke a holy prelate wyd thabbeys of red nry the serodes gr father were present at halle ig he kinge and cōte ar westmynster attis were present olestid seint at goodnes doth hate this quite and noble prelate ltie vertie de at knight he stod eriled cruelly sepydo

at a xl. at midnyght the fift day of cristyngas whiche was a legate ten yere of englonde prymas whiche crucifyed his fleshe in prayer & fastynge in wach in wering of here / and his body scourginge ¶ The yere of our lord. xii. hondred he was translated by meanes of steuyn archebischoppe of cantowbury to whose translaty on there were graunted suche pardon as was neuer graunted to any by pope Bonozus the fourthe / euery Yule to euery confest and contryte creature whyle the world last for to endure ¶ Kinge Henry the thirde was there with many a knyght Bauduise legate / archebischoppis / byschoppis many abbotes / priours and people in fenight so that the Cite of cantowbury coude nat receyue them all / nor billages therby they shynyd hym in gold and stone with solempnite before the aulter of the blessyd trinite ¶ Great myracles he dyd in his translation in curynge blynde / lame / dese / dome / & dede men ryllynge as was done in his glorious passyon to whome the.iiii. elemētis / spretis / sekenes and al thinge be obdient euen at his byddynge whose manyfold / graces I can not nomber they be so mystyfull and so wonder ¶ Saynt Thomas was borne on the tuesday on the tuesday his ennemyes agaynst him conspyred on the tuesdaye / dyd on tuesdaye. Duntyn